The lesson "The Devil" teaches is terribly true; the plot moves swiftly through, and so deft is the author's touch that one hardly realizes the tragic underlying force of his motive until the last curtain has fallen. This latest successful drama is in every way a truly remarkable play, and your first and best opportunity to see it will be next Monday at the Logan Opera House. Advance sale of seats now on at the Opera House Drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bright with their little girl returned Tuesday of last week from Huddersfield, England, where Mr. Bright is American consul. They will remain here for some weeks before returning to his post of duty.

The generous neighbors are taking up donations for Wm. H. Durant, who met with the misfortune to have his house burned last week. He was left in rather hard circumstances to face the winter. His many friends are coming to his relief nobly.

Your Child's Eye Sight.

You are responsible for the Eyes of your child. Watch out for frowns and squints. When he reads or looks at a picture book does he hold it too near or too far? These little things grow fast, but in many cases can be overcome if discovered in time.

We Insist on Your Bringing the Children in.

You may save them a lifetime of strain and weak sight. Defects of vision never disappear of their own accord, and in most cases grow worse. It's a duty you owe your child.

No Charge for Advising You.

The next meeting is with Miss Brooke.

Snider-Fitzgerald

On Monday evening of last week at five o'clock, at the M. E. Parsonage in Logan, Mr. Wesley Snider and Miss Cora Fitzgerald were married, Rev. Correll performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Snider left immediately for the home of the groom in the country to be the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Snider, for a few days. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fitzgerald, of McArthur, and sister of Mrs. Belle Martin and Mrs. I. I. Kinser. They will make their home in Van Wert county, and the best wishes of their many friends here go with them.

Vore-Schwenke

On Sunday evening at the home of the bride was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Floyd Vore to Miss Alice Schwenke, Rev. Correll performing the ceremony. Few of the friends of the popular young folks knew of their plans, and on Monday the news came as a great surprise. Miss Freda Armstrong and Mr. John Cox, stood up with them.

The bride is one of Logan's most charming girls and comes of noble parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwenke. She is a fit companion for one of the best men in the world, and from all reports the man of her choice is worthy of her. Mr. Vore is general manager of the company store at Kachelmacher, and they will live in that town. He is a business man of sterling quality and has made many friends in Logan. We wish for them the future's golden wedding, as happy as they are today.

Gas ranges at Work Bros.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Devine Service morning and evening. Morning Prayer 10:30 a. m. Evening Prayer 6:45 p. m. Everybody made welcome to our services. Rev. Dr. Cox will preach at both services. A. W. Buckland, Rector.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Stanley McDonald, whose residence is unknown, will take notice that on the 12th day of November, 1908, Asa L. O'Neill filed his petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Hocking County, Ohio, in case No. 4079, against Margaret Collins, Thomas E. Collins and said Stanley McDonald. The object and prayer of said petition is for judgment on a promissory note against Margaret Collins for $25.00 with 7 per cent interest thereon semi-annually, from December 5, 1903, and the foreclosure of a mortgage given by Margaret Collins and Thomas E. Collins to Lafayette O'Neill, securing the above note, on Lots 8 and 9 to Buckhorn's Addition to the town of New Cadiz, Hocking County, Ohio, and sale of said premises and correction of said mortgage and equitable relief. The petition alleges that said Stanley McDonald claims some interest in said premises by purchase, after said mortgage became absolute.

Said Stanley McDonald is required to answer said petition on or before the 24th day of January, 1909, or judgment and decree may be taken against him.
